FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: April 11, 2007

Equity Commercial Real Estate, LLC announced today that the building at 2116 W. Cornell Street in Milwaukee was sold. The building which was owned by The McCoy Family Trust, was formerly the site of McCoy Basement and Remodeling Contractors for many years. McCoy Contractors relocated to 4230 N. 126th Street in Brookfield about a year ago.

The Cornell property was sold to Jonco Properties, LLC, and will be leased to a landscaping business. “We had a number of small contractors look at the property, and the property really lends itself to that use”, said Tim Casey, Equity Principal. “This area is near the 30th Street Industrial Corridor and is in the Northwest Side Community Development Corporation service area. It’s an area that is getting a lot of attention for business investment and redevelopment.”

The McCoy Family Trust was represented by Tim Casey and David Zepecki of Equity Commercial Real Estate. Jonco Properties was represented by Sam Dickman, Jr. of the Dickman Company.
