FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: JUNE 4, 2010

Equity Commercial Real Estate, LLC announced a change in its partnership effective Monday, June 7, 2010. Tim Casey will be relinquishing his partnership interest in the firm to accept a position with the City of Brookfield as their Economic Development Coordinator beginning on Monday.

“We are very happy for Tim to be able to return to where he began his career, in public sector economic development work”, said Tom Gale, Managing Member of Equity. “Tim has been an integral part of creating Equity and getting us to the point where we are today, approaching our five year anniversary. Ken Petershack and I will be assuming Tim’s interest in the partnership, and we look forward to continuing to grow Equity and we will be working hard to ensure our clients continue to receive the highest quality service”, Gale said.

“It has been a pleasure to work with Tom and Ken as we created and grew Equity over the last four plus years” said Casey. “I look forward to returning to economic development work with a first-rate community that is well established as one of the premier business locations in Southeastern Wisconsin.”
